MEMORIAL TABLET.

Final arrangements have been made for the c-remonies moident to the unveiling of the tablet to the pathearers of General George Washington, tomor-row afterance at 4:30 o'clock. As has been meat oned before this handsome brouze tablet is now in place on the west wall of Christ Church. The members of Mt Verson Chapter, D. A R, have been interested for many months in the erection of this memorial, and to the members of the tablet committee, in whose hands the entire charge and accomplishment of this work was placed, too much praise cannot be given for their faithful and zealous work. The D. A. R. Congress, now in session in Washington, will adjourn tomorrow afternoon and the members will leave that city on two specials trains to attend these ceremonies. The Washington, Alexaudria & Mt. Vernon Ratiway Company have kindly tendered private car, "The Mt. Vertheir nov," for the speakers and special guests of the chapter. The U. S. Naval Academy Band numbering 45, under Director Zimmerman, will arrive in this city about 4 o'clock and will render geveral selections before the ceremonies begin. PROGRAMME

The following will be the programme of exercises: Music, invocation, Rev. W. J. Morton, rector of Christ Church; music, America; address, Hon. C. C. Oarlie; presentation of tablet by the regent of Mt. Vernon Ohapter, Mrs. Eleanor S. Washington Howard; unveiling of tablet by Margaret Douglas descendant of Col. Ramsay, and John Caile Scott, descendant of Col. Simms; acceptance of tablet for the vestry of Christ Church, Rev. W. J. Morton; music; address, Hon. Morris Shepherd; music; address, Mrs. Donald McLean, president general National Society Daughters of the Amercan Revolution; music, The Star Spangled Ban-

The following is a complete programme of the music:

Concerted march, Victorious America, Cobani; Malodies, Opera Balle of Bahemia, Englander; Medley, Selections of Southern Plantation Songs, Boetteger; March, Tannhauser, Wagner: America, How Firm a Foundation, Sanctus Solen-nelle, Mass; Star Spangled Bauber. Admission will be by card only.

WHO WILL IT BE?

As in every contest for supremacy the victor and the varquished are the two principal characters, so in the contest for "Queen of the Carnival" to close tomorrow night at 10 o'clock, there will be but one of the number to wear the A prediction is safe at this time that the one who is chosen and who will receive that beautiful diamond sunburst will know that the others were in the race. It is said that the fight for tht honor has hardly begue, but the next iters and the Corporation Court room forty-eight hours will tell the tale for the Virginians now living in Wash-Any one of the queenly candidates would ington. reflect credit on the occasion of the carnival and would be well worthy of any honor the city or its people could

The decorations are becoming more numerous daily, and flags, festoons, streamers, etc., are fluttering in all sections. Strings of electric lights are being stretched and everything made ready for the festive occasion. Harry the Oncest" will crown his queen in the court.

The court of honor on Washington street is assuming shape, and from pessent appearances that throughfare Messrs. Ross T. Elliott and Robert J. will present a dazzling picture, especially at night when illuminated by thousands of electric bulbs. As will be seen by the congressional proceedings the House of Representatives today accepted an invitation to attend the celebration in this city on the 30th. The invitation was presented by Mr. Carlin in a speech and Mr. Driscol, of New York, offered a resolution that the invitation be accepted. This was unanimously carried. As stated in the Gazette the Richmond Blues, Major E. W. Bowles, commanding the battalion, will visit Alexandria. The battalion will act as the escort to President Taft and Secretary of War Jacob M. Dickerson at the laying of the corneratone of the Washington Park, the 30th instant. Judge Burley has authorized the use of the court house for headquarters for Washingtonions on the 30th.

The executive committee on celebration of the 120th anniversary of Washington's inauguration met last night and transacted a large volume of purely routine business.

Among the things of general interest brought before the committee were the acceptances of the Richmond Blues, who will have 130 men in line, and the Richmond Howizers.

The committee on transportation reported the Chesapeake and Potomac Steamboat Company and the Marshall Hall Steamboat Company would run boats between Washington and Alexandria on the thirtieth, and had agreed to carry the District militis, the marines, the sailors and the Washington High School Oadets.

The chairman of the press committee was directed to invite one representative from each Washington paper and certain other papers.

It was reported to the committee that the members of the drill team of the Washington Shripe would be in Alexandris on Monday night.

Mr. Paff reported that the city engineer would attend to keeping the streets of the city clean during the entire week. Mr. J. M. Hill was appointed a committee of one to secure a searchlight to be placed on Shooter's Hill. The committee made arrangements for procuring badges for those having the celebration in charge. They selected those of a pretty and tasteful pattern, which will be valuable souvenirs of the occasion. One hundred and thirty-two were ordered.

AMUSING SHOWS.

There are many comedies on the American stags today, but without doubt the one put on by Guy Johnson and the excellent stock company at the Opera House last night entitled "Married in the Dark" eclipses them all. There is no portion of it characterized and no performer in the cast that should not receive particular mention, for the The clouds, rain and chilly weather of the past two days give way this morning to bright sunshine and warmer temperature. About 3 o'clock this evening a thunder storm passed over this city during which both rain and hail fell.

and no performer in the cast that should not receive particular mention, for the comedy is good and the parts are played to perfection. It is not too much to say that this is one of the greatest shows seen in this city. A large crowd greeted seen in this city. A large crowd greeted the performance.
